

Asset-Based Community Development Institute

Workshop: Introduction to ABCD

June/July 2024 Virtual Training Event

What A dynamic 18-hour workshop introducing the core principles and applications of Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD) in the context of local communities. Presentations and discussions will occur in light of current conversations about equity and social justice and will enable participants to think deeper about responses to these challenges.

ABCD creates resilient & thriving communities by teaching local people and organizations how to identify, nurture and mobilize existing community assets and talents for change.

When and Where

This course will meet over six sessions.

Dates: June 5, 12, 19 July 3, 10, 17
Week of June 26 – off for projects

Time: 9:00am to 12:00 pm U.S. Central Time.

An online event:

This will be a virtual training via Zoom.

Workshop will be limited to 25 participants on a first come first serve basis.

Who Should Attend?

People who seek an introduction to or refresher of ABCD in the context of communities of identity and place and want to know:

- How does a community move toward a wider circle of people working together to realize goals?
- How can my organization more actively support the concerns and efforts of local people?
- How do I make ABCD work in my neighborhood?
- The power of co-production
- How might ABCD address income and race disparity?
- What does it take to create a healthy community?

Workshop Leaders The course will be led by three experienced ABCD trainers affiliated with the ABCD Institute at DePaul University – Darryl Answer, April Doner, Wendy McCaig and Rory Wells.
